Update on Jackie “O” Henderson Litigation

SYDNEY, Australia – Monday 3 August 2026 – In response to recent media commentary, ARN Media Limited (“ARN”) [ASX: A1N] notes that it is progressing its evidence with the intention of vigorously defending all claims made by Ms Henderson. The matter is set down for hearing in the Federal Court from 12 October to 23 October 2026.

ARN also notes that the article in The Australian newspaper today “ARN’s secret payout plan revealed” contains a number of factual inaccuracies, including that the company “secretly budgeted for paying [Mr Kyle] Sandilands up to $35m”. ARN confirms that it has made no provision in relation to either the Sandilands or Henderson litigation.
