AFG appoints David Flynn as Non-Executive Director

Australian Finance Group Ltd (ASX: AFG) today announced the appointment of David Flynn as an independent Non-Executive Director, effective 4 August 2026.

Mr Flynn is a senior investment and corporate advisory executive with more than two decades of experience across mergers and acquisitions, capital markets and business leadership. He has spent 17 years as a Partner and Senior Adviser at Azure Capital, one of Australia's leading corporate advisory firms and brings deep capital markets knowledge and experience to the Board. Mr Flynn has advised on transactions in the infrastructure, telecommunications, real estate and financial services sectors. Prior to Azure Capital, Mr Flynn worked as a trader in fixed income, credit and derivative markets at Union Bancaire Privée.

Mr Flynn has also maintained a sustained commitment to the Western Australian community through board service, volunteering and philanthropy, including six years serving as the Deputy Chair of the Perth International Arts Festival.

AFG Chair Greg Medcraft welcomed the appointment.

“David brings deep capital markets and transaction experience to our Board at a time when AFG continues to invest in its platform, its lending business and its broker partnerships,” Mr Medcraft said.

“His judgement, understanding of listed markets and long record of building businesses alongside their owners align closely with how we work with our members. We look forward to his contribution.”

Mr Flynn said he was pleased to join the Board.

“I've watched and worked with AFG for a long time and have great respect for what the AFG team has built,” Mr Flynn said. “There is a significant opportunity ahead in distribution, technology and lending, and I am looking forward to working with the Board and management team to help realise it.”
