Cash Converters - Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

Cash Converters International Limited (ASX: CCV) ("Cash Converters" or "the Company") announces the appointment of David Rose as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective 15th September 2025.

David was most recently the Group CFO and Executive, Risk and Strategy at ScotPac (formerly Scottish Pacific Group). During the time at ScotPac David oversaw significant Lending Book and Revenue growth. David also oversaw several significant strategic initiatives across M&A, New Products, Capital Management and Funding, as well as a Digital Transformation of the business.

Prior to ScotPac, David has held senior roles across Australia, the UK and Asia Pacific, including Bankwest/CBA Executive Roles; being responsible for the Bankwest Retail Store designs, and co-leading the East Coast Network Expansion. David was also a Consulting Partner at PwC where he led the firm's regional Customer Management practice and managed cross border M&A, due diligence, strategy and structural transformations.

Managing Director's Comment:

Cash Converters Chief Executive Officer & Managing Director, Sam Budiselik stated "I am thrilled to welcome David to the executive team. David's appointment adds a depth of experience and strategic capability to our executive team; that will be important as we embark on our next wave of acquisitions across Australia and Europe. David's recent background in developing capital management and funding plans, whilst focusing on disciplined cost management and leveraging technology for value, will be instrumental as we continue to execute on our strategy."
