ASX Announcement

New A$1.2m Ballistic Product Order Received

Key highlights:

- New A$1.2m order of ballistic products from an international customer
- Ballistic products to be supplied before the end of H2 FY26

HighCom Limited (ASX: HCL) (HighCom or the Company) is pleased to announce that it has received a new order valued at A$1.2m to supply its high-end ballistic products to an international customer. The customer has issued the purchase order, and it will be delivered before the end of H2 FY26.

Ryan Edwards, President of HighCom Armour Inc, said:

"We're pleased to see new orders growing and increasing forward demand for our products following the US government shutdown that impacted H1. Our products are recognised as industry-leading for their light-weight, strength and overall field performance. We are working with customers across military, police, and border security as well as others with a strong pipeline of future opportunities."

This ASX announcement has been authorised for release by the Board.
