

CEO and CFO Appointments

10 June 2026: Helia Group Limited (Helia or the Company) (ASX:HLI) today announced that Mr Mark Senkevics has been appointed Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director following the completion of an extensive executive search.

Mr Senkevics' appointment will take effect on or before 1 December 2026, and he will take over from Interim CEO Michael Cant who was appointed Interim CEO effective 1 July 2025. Mr Cant's existing 12-month contract will be extended to allow an orderly transition and handover, after which he will retire from full time executive work and pursue non-executive opportunities.

Helia Chair, Leona Murphy said "Mark brings more than 25 years of insurance industry experience including leadership positions across Australia, New Zealand and Asia-Pacific markets. He is well placed to lead Helia as it builds on its 60-year heritage of supporting Australians to buy, invest and upgrade their homes.

On behalf of the Board, I want to pass on our thanks to Mr Cant for his service as Interim CEO since 1 July 2025 and prior to that as Chief Financial Officer. Michael has been an outstanding leader for the organisation. His dedication, expertise and professionalism have left an invaluable impact, and we wish him the best as he moves into the next phase of his career."

Mr Senkevics said "I'm excited to be joining Helia at a pivotal time for the Australian home ownership and lending landscape. Helia has built a strong reputation through the expertise and commitment of its people and I look forward to working with the talented Helia team, its customers and partners to build on the Company's vision to be Australia's most trusted risk partner for home lending."

Mr Craig Ward will be appointed Chief Financial Officer from 1 July 2026 after serving in the role of Interim CFO since 1 July 2025.

Details of the key terms of Mark Senkevics' employment contract, including remuneration arrangements, are set out in Attachment 1 and his Biography is set out in Attachment 2.
