Response to Media Reporting in WA

9 June 2026, Melbourne

Integral Diagnostics Limited (ASX: IDX) notes recent media reports in Western Australia which allege inappropriate billing practices by IDX's subsidiary, Apex Radiology, at the Kalgoorlie Hospital.

IDX is not aware of any inappropriate Apex Radiology billing practices at the Kalgoorlie Hospital.

IDX's market leading approach to Medicare billing

IDX takes its responsibility to understand and comply with Medicare billing requirements seriously. Through IDX's National Billing and Revenue Assurance Committee, IDX employs a rigorous and market leading approach to achieve the highest possible standards of billing accuracy.

IDX and Apex Radiology take any allegations relating to billing seriously, and out of an abundance of caution IDX will conduct an independent audit to confirm that there are no billing anomalies that relate to Apex Radiology in this matter. IDX will update the market on the outcome of the independent audit.

Kalgoorlie Hospital – WA Country Heath Service (WACHS) contract

Apex Radiology has an agreement with WACHS to provide radiologist reporting services across a number of hospitals, including the Kalgoorlie Hospital.

Diagnostic imaging at the Kalgoorlie Hospital is performed by WACHS staff apart from one MRI technician who is provided by Apex Radiology.

Apex Radiology receives a fee from WACHS for providing the radiologist reporting services. Apex Radiology does not directly benefit from Medicare at Kalgoorlie Hospital.
