Highlights

- Former Nufarm CEO & Managing Director Greg Hunt, former Namoi Cotton Executive Chairman Tim Watson and AgWorld founder Christopher Ramsey appointed as Non-Executive Directors.
- Appointments form part of RLF AgTech's strategy to strengthen the business and support its next phase of commercial growth.
- Collectively, the new directors bring decades of leadership across global agribusiness, ASX-listed companies, agricultural technology and large-scale farming, together with extensive domestic and international industry networks.

RLF AgTech Ltd (RLF or the Company) (ASX: RLF) is pleased to announce the appointment of three highly respected Australian agribusiness leaders to its Board as Non-Executive Directors, significantly strengthening the Company's commercial, strategic and governance capability as it executes its next phase of growth.

Joining the Board are former Nufarm Limited Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director Greg Hunt, former Namoi Cotton Executive Chairman Tim Watson, and AgWorld founder Christopher Ramsey. Collectively, they bring extensive experience leading global agribusinesses, ASX-listed companies, agricultural technology businesses and large-scale farming enterprises.

The appointments form part of RLF's ongoing strategy to strengthen the Board with proven industry leaders who can help accelerate commercial execution, expand market opportunities and support the Company's long-term growth ambitions. In addition to their executive and board experience, the new directors contribute deep domestic and international industry relationships, broad commercial expertise and successful track records in strategy, governance, capital allocation and value creation.

The appointments are effective from 1 October 2026 and have been approved by the Board of Directors.

RLF AgTech's Executive Chairman Ben Barlow said: "The calibre of directors joining RLF AgTech speaks volumes about the opportunity they see in our business and the direction we are taking as a company."

"We've been focused on building a stronger business with the right foundations for long-term growth. The appointment of Greg, Tim and Chris is another important step in that journey and reflects our commitment to surrounding the business with exceptional leadership as we execute our strategy."

"Collectively, they have led some of Australia's most respected agribusinesses, agricultural technology companies and ASX-listed organisations. Their commercial experience, strategic insight and extensive industry networks will be invaluable as we accelerate commercial execution, expand market opportunities and continue creating long-term value for our shareholders."

Mr. Greg Hunt

Greg Hunt has more than 35 years' leadership experience across agriculture, agribusiness and industrial sectors. He previously served as Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of Nufarm Limited and Managing Director of Elders Limited. Greg has also served as a non-executive director and Chairman across a range of listed and private companies. He has extensive experience in strategy, capital allocation, international market development, governance and value creation, and has also served as a non-executive director and chairman across a range of listed and private companies.

Greg Hunt said: "I am delighted to join the Board of RLF AgTech at an important stage in the company's development.

RLF has developed technology with genuine commercial potential in a market that is increasingly demanding higher productivity, greater input efficiency and more sustainable farming systems. I have joined the Board because I believe there is a significant opportunity to accelerate commercial adoption, build strategic partnerships and create enduring value for farmers and shareholders alike.

I look forward to working with my fellow directors and the management team to help realise that opportunity."

Tim Watson

Tim Watson brings extensive commercial farming and listed company experience, having spent more than 30 years developing and managing Sunland Agriculture, a leading broadacre irrigated cropping and horticulture business in southern New South Wales. He later served as Non-Executive Director, Chairman and Executive Chairman of ASX-listed Namoi Cotton, where he led the company through its successful acquisition by Louis Dreyfus Company. Tim also has extensive experience in agricultural policy and corporate governance. He has also contributed to agricultural policy and industry development, including as Chair of the Lower Lachlan Water Users Association, and is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Tim Watson said: "RLF AgTech has built a strong foundation and I believe the Company has an exciting opportunity ahead. Having spent my career in commercial agriculture, I understand the importance of products that deliver real value on farm, and I look forward to working with the Board and management team to help accelerate the Company's growth and create long-term value for shareholders."

Christopher Ramsey

Christopher Ramsey is the founder of AgWorld and has more than 35 years' experience across agribusiness, agricultural technology, sales, marketing and commercial strategy. He has founded and built multiple businesses, developed extensive industry relationships across Australia's agricultural sector and worked with boards and executive teams to drive commercial growth and strategic execution.

Christopher Ramsey said: "Agriculture continues to evolve rapidly, and companies that can deliver practical, on-farm outcomes have a significant opportunity ahead. RLF AgTech has built a solid platform, and I look forward to working with the Board and management team to accelerate commercial adoption, build strategic partnerships and create long-term value for shareholders."

About RLF AgTech Ltd (ASX: RLF)

RLF AgTech Ltd (ASX: RLF) manufactures high-analysis liquid fertilisers and seed treatments that build stronger root systems, the foundation for better nutrient uptake, crop quality and yield. Backed by more than 30 years of technical and agronomic expertise, RLF's products are designed to deliver measurable return on investment at the farm gate.

The Group operates multiple business units: RLF Australia, supplying broadacre and horticultural growers through a national distribution network; LiquaForce, a Queensland-based liquid fertiliser manufacturer primarily servicing the sugarcane industry; and RLF China, an established operation serving one of the world's largest agricultural markets. RLF also sells into Southeast Asia and other global markets.

By improving how efficiently crops take up nutrients, RLF's products reduce input waste and support long-term soil health, delivering agronomic and environmental benefits from the same application.
