Update to Interim Dividend Payment Date and Proposed Disposal of InterPrac

Sequoia Financial Group Limited (ASX:SEQ) ("the Company") advises that the payment date for the previously declared interim dividend has been revised from 3 June 2026 to 29 June 2026.

As previously disclosed on 13 May 2026, the Company agreed to defer payment of the interim dividend pending developments regarding the proposed sale of InterPrac Financial Planning Pty Ltd ("InterPrac") and the related proceedings commenced by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC").

The Federal Court of Australia (the "Court") today made orders which include a timetable requiring any application regarding the status of the Share Sale Agreement relating to the proposed disposal of InterPrac ("Agreement") to be filed and served by 25 June 2026. The Court also adjourned the matter to a further case management hearing on 17 July 2026 should it be required.

While discussions between the parties have continued, and notwithstanding that the Company has previously provided notice to the purchaser seeking termination of the Agreement, the status of the Agreement remains unresolved.

The Directors consider it prudent to defer payment of the interim dividend until 29 June 2026 to allow the parties an opportunity to progress discussions and provide any relevant material to the Court in accordance with the timetable ordered today. The Board believes this approach is consistent with the Company's ongoing cooperation with ASIC and the Federal Court process.

The interim dividend payment will be paid regardless of the outcome of the Agreement. All other details relating to the interim dividend remain unchanged.
