Titomic Secures AS9100 Certification in Huntsville

HUNTSVILLE, AL – Titomic Limited (ASX: TTT), a global advanced manufacturing company serving the U.S. and allied defense industrial base, is pleased to announce that its Huntsville, Alabama facility has successfully achieved AS9100 certification, a globally recognized quality management standard for the aerospace and defense industry. This milestone underscores Titomic's commitment to delivering the highest levels of quality, consistency, and reliability across its advanced manufacturing operations.

The AS9100 certification reflects the successful completion of a rigorous external audit process, validating Titomic's systems, processes, and controls meet the stringent requirements demanded by aerospace and defense customers. The certification covers key operational areas including production, quality assurance, risk management, and continuous improvement.

Securing AS9100 certification represents a significant step forward for Titomic's U.S. operations in Huntsville, a strategic hub for aerospace, defense, and advanced manufacturing. The achievement enhances Titomic's ability to support critical industry partners and positions the company for expanded opportunities within highly regulated markets.

"This certification demonstrates the strength of our operational discipline and our team's dedication to excellence," said Dr. Patti Dare, President, USA "Achieving AS9100 reinforces our commitment to our customers and provides a strong foundation for continued growth in the U.S. aerospace and defense sectors."

Titomic's Huntsville facility specializes in advanced cold spray additive manufacturing and coating solutions, enabling the production and repair of high-performance components with reduced lead times and material waste. With AS9100 certification now in place, Titomic is further equipped to meet increasing demand for innovative, high-quality manufacturing solutions.

This achievement marks another key milestone in Titomic's global expansion strategy and reinforces its position as a trusted partner in advanced manufacturing for mission-critical applications.

This announcement has been authorized for release by Titomic's Board of Directors.
